The night full of firework, and people sing a joyful songs, Happy new year for us! May the God's blessing upon you! We hope this year you got everything that you want, and life a better life. Here we are, we will provide you with the most fresh news from our International Program. Let's check it out!

Chinese Students' Impressions

On January 5th, we interviewed 4 of 5 Exchange Students from Hebei University, China, they were Ann, Alisa, April, and Amber. We asked them about their impressions of studying and living here for about six months in FEB Unsoed. Here their impressions.

“I felt relax here because the peoples here were very kind. I was happy because my classmates invited us to have a trip together to Jogja, Jakarta, Bali, and Pangandaran.” - An Shuang a.k.a Ann

“There were two foods I liked in here and I would be missed when I go back to China, those foods were Mendoan and Martabak”. - Shi Qiuping a.k.a Alisa.

“Actually I enjoy studying here, and especially my classmate were very nice to me “ -April a.k.a Sun Yue.

“I thought Purwokerto was a cozy town, and even though not all peoples here could speak in English but they were very friendly to us.”- Qi Huiming a.k.a Amber

And that's the impression from our beloved Chinese Students.

Shoot and Action!

The next day after we did the short interview—January 6th, we took a photo shoot and video shoot for FEB UNSOED promotional activities along with the Exchange Students from China. They were Ann/An Shuang, Alisa/Shi Qiuping, April/Sun Yue, Amber/Qi Huiming, and Star/Wang Yongqin.

We did the photo and video shoot with them in many spots. The first spot was Gazebo in building A. The second spot was Roedhiro Park. The third spot was one classroom in building A. We spent about three hours for doing the photo and studio shoot.

January Farewell!

Sadly, on this January our beloved International Students has to back to their country after finishing 1 semester in Jenderal Soedirman University. They fly back to their country on January 7th, 2016. We wish them luck and success for what they will do in their country. Farewell and thank you for being parts of our international program big family!

Good luck, our students!

Another good news comes from Thailand. Three of our students are accepted to join student exchange program in Mahasarakham University for 1 semester. They are Ariyanti Eka Pratiwi, Fathiyah Damar Putriwulandari, and Maritha Kusuma Wardani. Good luck on your venture! We wish you healthy and study well!
